An Emphasis On Helping Others

This year we had some students who devoted part of their time, and a part of their hearts, to helping children. Helping raise money for the Children's Orthopedic Hospital were Junior Orthopedic Guild (JOG) members (1): Katrinka Eckardt, Sue Meinert, Dee Ann Hansen, John Endresen, Dave Tipton, Sue Wynne, Delores Ciganik, Cheryl Perry, Kathleen Driscoll, Michi Yamashiti, Barbara Parr, Mary Pinneo, Marie Wilson, April McDonald, Sue Nicodemus, Diane Jarvi, Kathy Morton, Frances Michelson, Bo Pinneo, Adrianne Lomas, Virginia Ball. Instructing small children to swim is not an easy job agreed Swimmers Aides (2): Bill Meinert, Nels Rassmussen, Ed Udd, Lisa Ranniger, Marsha Zuarri, Karen Pitt. The group with the toughest, but probably the most rewarding job, were the Handicapped Children's Aides (3): Jeri King, Kathleen Driscoll, Cheri Clark, Sherry Baker, Craig Salt, John Anderson, Cindy Weber, Mrs. Nelson, Advisor; Patrice Molnar, Julie Neimi, Dee Ann Hansen, Carol Beck, Marsha Zuarri, Maggie Lee, Sue Wynne, Loretta Yount, Delores Ciganik, Cheryl Perry, Laurie Damschen, Virginia Ball.

. . . Life is where you find it; you cannot search for it within the walls of an institution. It is, however, very easy on this campus to forget the world inside these walls. Members of North Kitsap DECA and Retailers Club venture out into the world and fend for themselves by taking a job. Learning what its all about were DECA members (1): Doug Hagen, Tony Cleveland, Marlene Dennis, Dave Webster, Ron Levengood, Kris Kallstrom, Alice Worland, Wanda Hatch, Mr. Schillar, advisor; Colleen Tobin, Denise Cheatum, Lynn Waldroop, Anna Hartle, Karen Pitt, Sue Witte. Busy operating the Student Store were North Kitsap Retailers (2): Mr. Schillar, advisor, Steve Sipes, Jeff Hamilton, Jack Titterness, Randy Stitzer, Duane Wynn, Cindy Monroe, Bob Phillips; Sue Sullenger, Linda Seevers, Lynda Miller, Sherri Baker, Colette Orlob, Jill Tuson. When a child needs help in his school work, to whom does he turn to? He'd be better off if he turned to a North Kitsap Tutor. Aiding children in need were (3): Ralph Milleson, Dave Freiboth, Val Halderson, Craig Smith; Joe Delk, Dave Callaway, Ann Deits, Mary Brock, Denise Lockwood; Brook McKinstry, Lissa Lucas, Dave Tipton, Pam Kiehle, Linda Lanning, Barbara Strathman; Mr. Price, advisor, Ellen Lewis, Gale Pinneo, Marion Higgins, Nancy Deacon, Barbara Couillard, Jackie Edmonson, Pete Furseth. Helping out a handicapped child was (4) Patrice Molnar.

Homecoming–

Almost everyone anticipated Homecoming with a hopeful feeling inside, but also with the knowledge that West was first in the league. Pre-game activities at school and after the parade set the mood. Elected Queen was KAREN NUSSBAUMER and King RICHARD SMITH. Karen's princesses were Martha Ashcraft and Connie Pinter with their escorts, John Vanderhalf and Craig Smith.

P.M.A. Sparks School Leadership

"What the human mind can conceive and believe, it can and will achieve." P. M. A. made the difference in this year's leaders. The new leadership class, taught by Mr. Taylor, instructed students in the power of positive mental attitude. P. M. A. carried our leaders on when their goals looked dismal. The rock of '72 cast its shadow on (2) A.S.B. officers: Butch Harwell, President; Becky Baker, Vice President; and Glen Robbins, Treasurer.

"A Rebel Without A Cause," the sensational play put on by the Drama Club in November, was a real success. A large crowd both nights encouraged and inspired the actors to do their best. Craig Smith as Jim and Mike Pursey as Buzz (1) clashed during their knife fight while Merrilee Swanson and Lisa Ranniger, who played Judy, witnessed the duel. The gang members and Dave Hamilton, playing the part of Plato, (2) showed their concern for Buzz during the chicken run. Adding to the violence, (3) Plato shot Goon, played by Nels Rasmussen, while Matt Amis, as Moose, held the light. Mrs. Berg, director of the play, (4) put the final touch on Anna Collins' make-up for her part as Belle. Despite the frayed nerves, members of the cast thought the play was well worth the effort.

Beccie, one more year & I'm sure we'll be dandy friends forever more! Hope you have a swingin' summer & we'll have to have fun next year. You're a great kid :) Love Katrina

Beccie,
Remember, anytime when you're feeling low, think of the fact that you have bettered your life by taking typing this year. Don't party too much this summer. You have the whole year next year. But I have faith in you. I know you'll stay as good and as sweet as you are. Thanks for the many years of friendship. I know there will be many more...
Love,
Franco

SCHOOL IS FOR "LEARNING"

Decision Making, Organizing, and Disciplining

. . . were simplified ways of saying that these people kept themselves very busy this year seeing that our school days were organized and well operated.

(1) MRS. ~~DOROTHY~~ JOHNSON spent many hours helping us get into the offices of those ever-busy counselors of ours. Our vice-principal MR. GEORGE PUGH (2) kept in shape by swinging from the beams in the main hall, but more important was the time he spent trying to solve our problems and complaints. (3) MRS. JANE MILES was our devoted librarian. MR. MARTY AMUNDSEN our favorite Instructional Media Center specialist, and MRS. ELSIE OWENS who always reminded us of our overdue books. Always seeking for a more efficient school district was (4) MR. ROBERT MINNITTI, our superintendent.

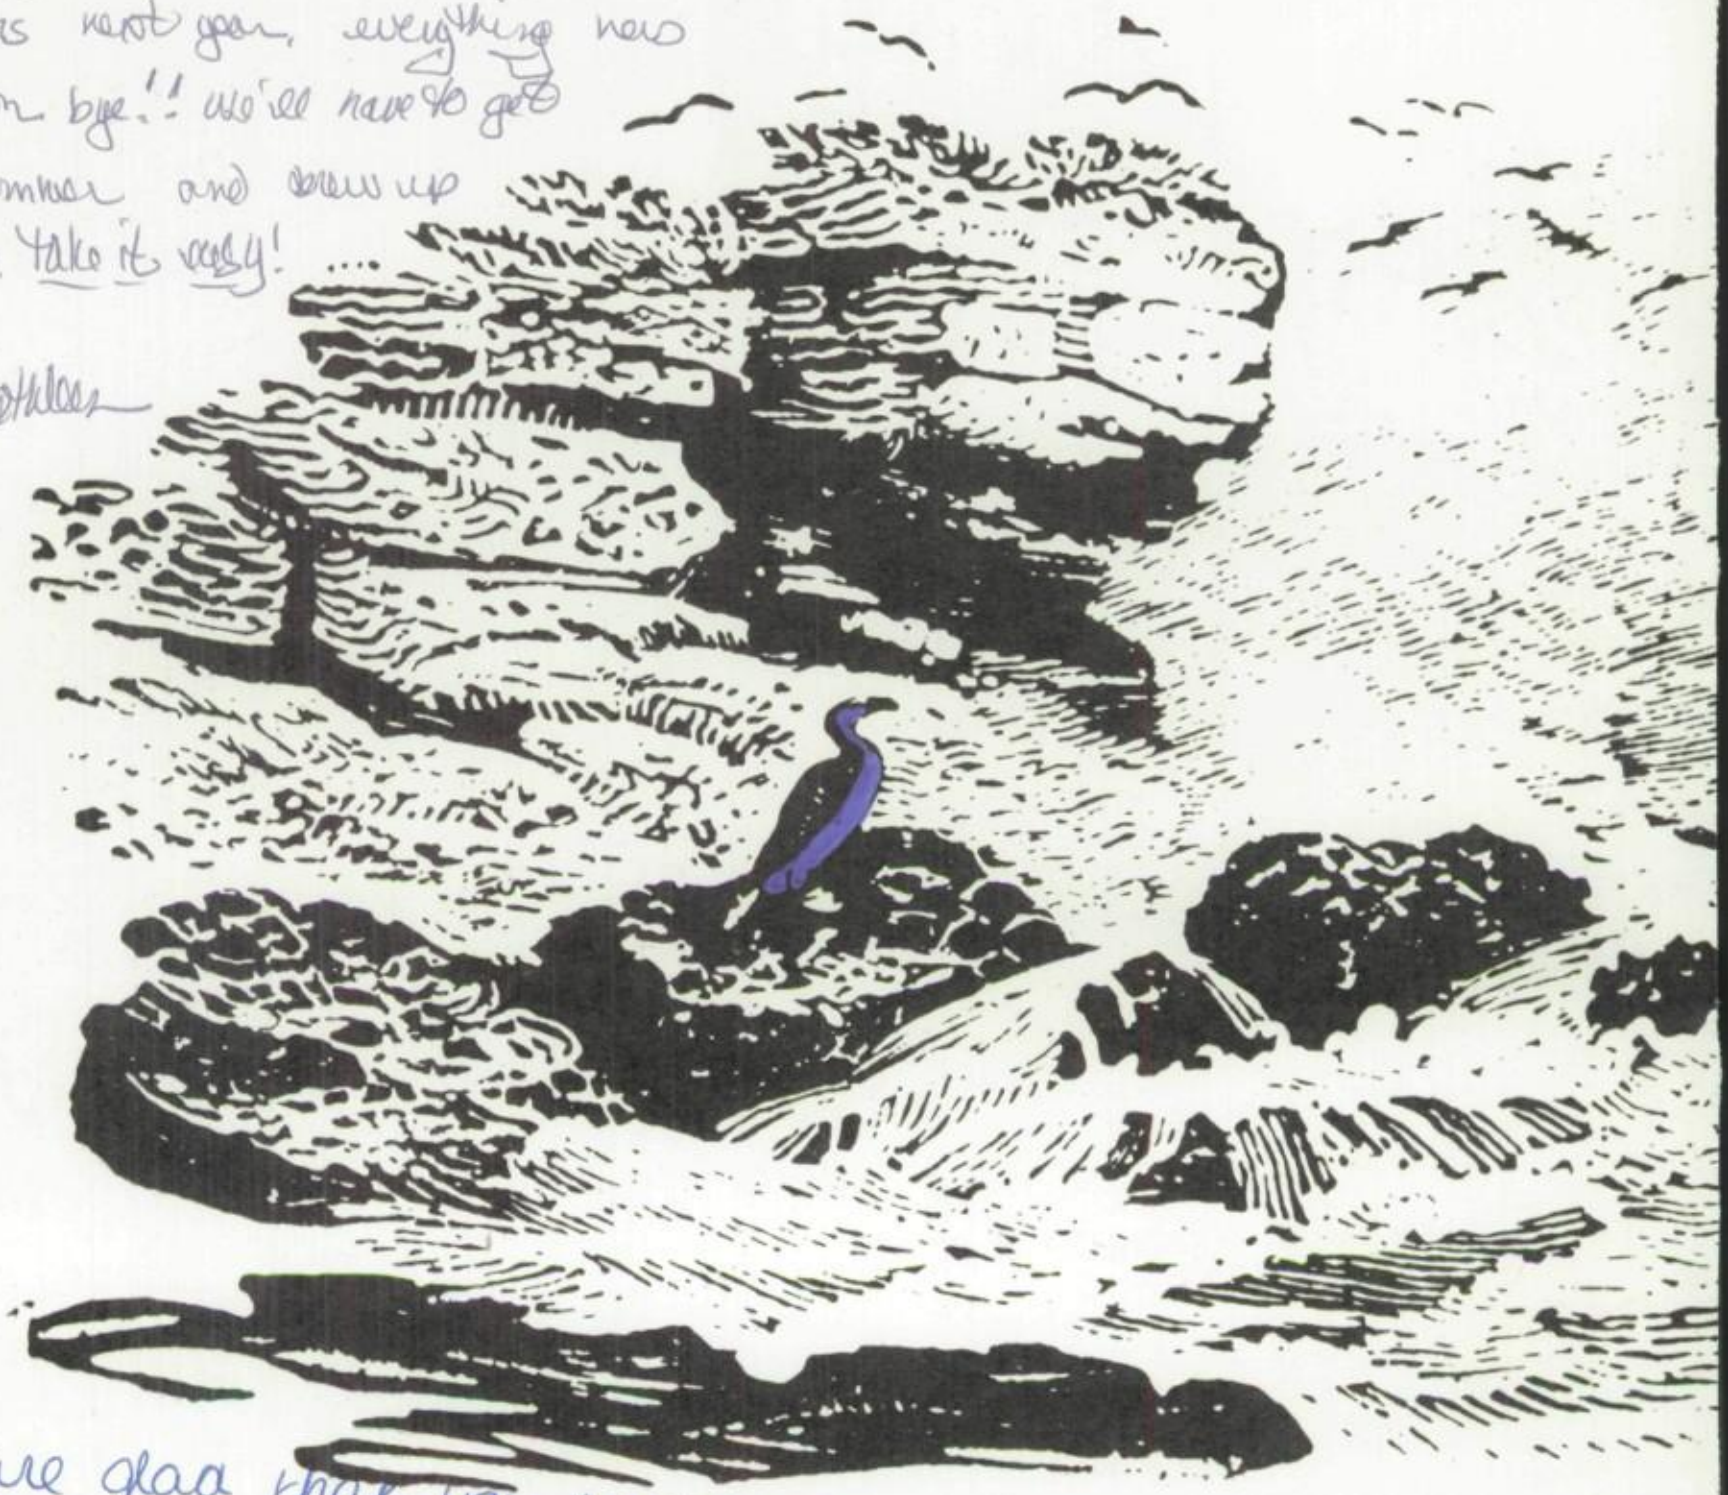
Yeager
alright!

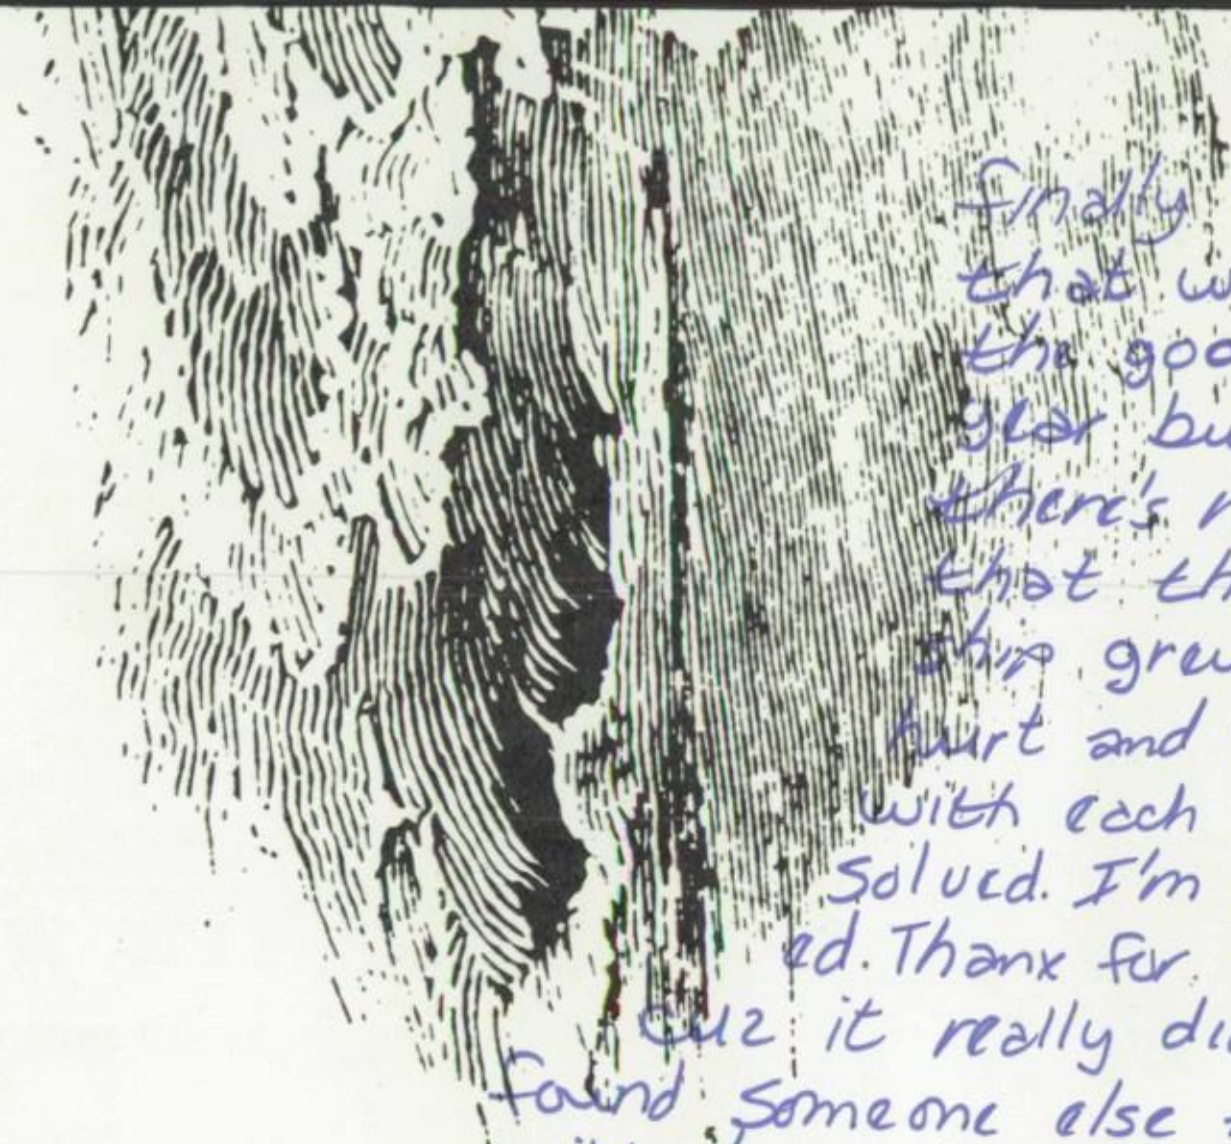
Well, Becci, this has been some year for all of us. Next year is gonna' be kind of lonely without those crummy guys 'round. We'll just have to stir and bubble up lots of trouble to keep people on their feet. Right! I think the two of us will be clunking around in typing for a long time. We just don't get it! Just doesn't seem like we are seniors next year, everything has really zoomed on bye!! We'll have to get together this summer and brew up something to do. Take it easy! ....

love,
Kathleen



Becci,
I'm sure glad that you broke up with Larry cuz we get jealous when you two go bye & Russ waves. Anyway, I'm so stupid today I don't know what I'm doing. See you next year!

Love Casey



Beccie,
Well, this year's finally come and gone. I think that we've both experienced the good and the bad this year but we made it and there's no harm done. I think that through Larry our friendship grew stronger. Feels were hurt and tears were shed but with each tear the poblem solved. I'm happy for what happened. Thanx for talking to me about it cuz it really did help. But now I've found someone else to replace that hurt with happiness. I'm glad now that both realized Larry wasn't worth it. Keep yourself like you are I hope that your desires in life come true. Keep your chin up and a smile on your face and life will treat you good. Come over to Kingston this summer and I imagine I'll be around there too! Ha. Take care and try to behave. I know at times it's hard. Ha! Gobs of luck in everything you do. God Bless,
Love,
Marilyn

... greeted couples as they entered into a "Winter Wonderland," the theme chosen for the '71 Junior Prom. As a change this year, the prom was held at the Poulsbo Armory, which provided not only a new tradition, but also a new atmosphere for the icy theme. Couples enjoyed the music (1) while Erica Young enticed Richard Smith into a dance. Terry Johnson and Joe Yeager looked on (2) as Thelma DeGroen was crowned Queen. Rick Jellison and Dianne Nation (3) discussed the romantic atmosphere of the prom with a friend. Karen Nussbaumer crowned a happy princess, Trissie Ellis (4) while Doug Nausid gave her moral support. Mountains provided a frosty background for royalty (5) Doug Nausid, Trissie Ellis, Joe Yeager, Thelma DeGroen, Terry Johnson and Frances Michelson. Pondering the evening's events were (6) Russ McRoberts and Casey Chesterfield.

Well Miss Magnuson —
I want you to take care
of yourself this summer, since
I won't be around to watch
Plus, don't get too much sun
it can be hazardous to your health.
I hope to maybe see you before I leave, if I do! Have fun, and I hope We can always be friends! Jan

Bessie,
When it comes to signing these things - I'd rather not, but I know how great it is to read them later. This has been a good year. Looking back I can find tons of good memories. We didn't get together as much as I'd hoped, but I guess we just had different roads to follow. Maybe next year we can get it together. At any rate - Enjoy everything you do, and you'll have all good memories.
I will see you this summer.
Love
Erica Jean

"Talking Doesn't Cook the Rice. . .

The 1972 Gymnastics Team faced stiff competition but still came out on top. In (1) Tonya Moore showed good form on the tramp. Dianne Nation (2) worked on an optional beam routine to perform at the state meet. Betty Cunningham (3) wondered which way was up and Thelma deGroen (4) displayed poise in her beam routine. In (5) Teri Heins worked hard to be chosen by her teammates as Honorary Captain. She also tied for Inspirational Player Award with Tris Ellis (6) who hoped for a soft landing after a stag leap.

. . But Work Does."

Many hours of hard work and self discipline proved that Mrs. Nohel was right when she said, "Talking doesn't cook the rice, but work does." Those who demonstrated this in their excellent performances were varsity gymnasts (right): Diane Nation, Teri Heins, Tris Ellis; Sheila Edmondson, Karen Reynolds, Jeanette Klamke; Marti Seaberg, Sara Mears, Danese Heffner, Thelma deGroen.

Practicing hard to gain a spot on the varsity were J.V. team members (below): Mary Duncan, Arleen Pitt, Mary Cable, Linda Lanning, Tonya Moore.

Frosh team members (right) showed much enthusiasm during the season: Michi Yamashita, Patti Kasczyski, Kristi Weiss, Debbie Nicholson, Lynn Smith; Cindy Mikels, Marci Thomas, Gayle Areheart, Margaret Thomas; Kerri Myers, Retha McDonald, Debbie Shultz. All the teams were coached by Mrs. Ruth Nohel and Mrs. Mary Chilton.

No One Can Keep Me Down!

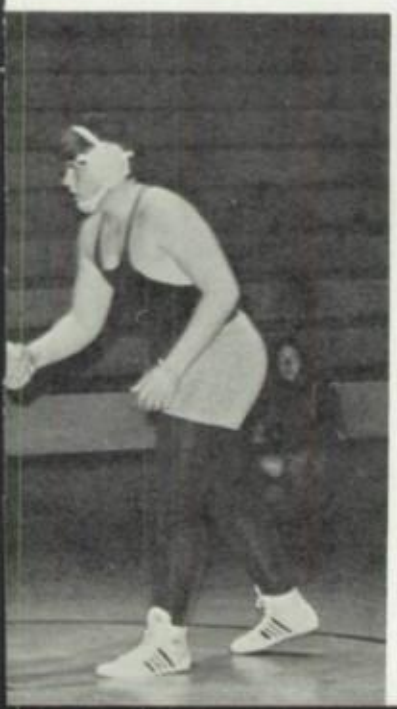
Coached this year for the first time by Ed Nelson and assisted by Roger Malfait, the NK grapplers finished second in the league. Gordon Tinnin (1) controlled his man while the ref looked on. In (2) Ernie Orwiler proved again that no one could take him down. Mike Pursey (3) urged a team mate on to victory as Gordon Tinnin and Ed Nelson watched in expectation. In (4) Irving Klamke topped a Central grappler. Greeting his opponent (5) was Bob Atack.



This year NK had the great honor of playing host to the Japanese Wrestling Team. Team members demonstrated their skills to the student body during an assembly and delighted everyone by singing for us. The Japanese wrestlers won an overwhelming victory over the Olympic League All-Stars. Everyone here at North enjoyed their visit and are eagerly looking forward to their return.

NK: Potentially Tough

"Potentially Tough" was what they said about us. And they were right. The 1971-72 Varsity Basketball Squad (left): Wade Habner, Len Smith, Mr. Basketball Larry Reynolds, Honorary Captain Dale McRoberts, Terry Johnson, KBRO Sportsmanship Award Winner Cory Heins; Craig Riggs, Tony Yount, Inspirational Player Mike Standley, Brian Tweitmeyer, Inspirational Player Mark Haupt, Wally Forbes. The Varsity was coached by Mr. Dick Ballard.

In (2) Dracula prepared his deadly bite for Lucy. This self-directed play happened May 5 and 6. The annual Animal Farm (3), (5) drew crowds of parents and students to the Ag. Building. "Precious and Few" was the theme of this year's Girls' Club Tolo held on April 14. The band Jerut provided the music.

As a wave in the ocean of time, we too have our place. But unlike a wave we can choose whether to be ourselves or to be just another person coming in and going out again in the tide of life. We must accept the fact that our existence is worthy of being maintained and cultivated. Because, as a man said many years ago, "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he . . . ." (Proverbs 23:7).

Your 1972 Viking staff hopes that it has been able to show you the importance of being yourself and that is has been able to share with you some moments of fulfillment. For when we find the uniqueness that is ours, and we constantly strive to express it, then each new year of our lives will be the best.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Though things were rough at times, we, the 1972 VIKING staff, did enjoy bringing you the memories of this school year.

We would like to thank Mr. Ron Keesling, our company representative, for understanding our strange and varied deadlines. Mr. Bud Smith of Hudson's Studio also deserves commendation from the staff for his patience and his excellent photography. Dr. Kenneth Rasmussen, Mr. Wayne Estes, Mike Parr and Matt Amis also helped with our photography. And a special thanks to Mr. John Morgan, our advisor, for his encouragement and to Mrs. Phyllis Drake for her sympathy and understanding.

We're very grateful to the faculty for their patience during the many picture-taking episodes. Thanks also goes to the merchants who helped to finance this year's VIKING. And last but not least, thanks to you, the students of North, for without you this yearbook would not have been possible.

Dear Bud,

From what I hear as time goes on your problems get fewer and life starts treating you better, I'll say that the guy who said that was either a liar or we must be in for some pretty good times this summer. Even though the bad times do outweigh the good, our good times will be the best, and I doubt if anyone could top them. I can't begin to tell ya how much our friendship means to me, we're closer than sisters and more than friends. I'm glad you realize that unlike most girlfriends we have never fought, sure we've had our disagreements but there's too much understanding for stupid quarrels.

Besides that we've had our hands full fighting with everyone else, and struggling to keep our heads above water. Well kid, what more is there to say except don't ever get caught in the "slimmy vines" stay away from dirty old men "unless he's got a friend for me" and always remember the fun before the sorrow and tears.

your bestest Bud

Beccie,
Well, it's been a pretty good year, but next year is going to be better. I just hope I can come down and tuck you in a few times this summer. Mr. Malfaits class was a real drag but you made things go a little nicer.

Take care

Love,
Dan

Becci
You're a great girl. I only wish I could of knew you better. Have fun this summer

Beccie,
To one girl
that means alot
to me and at lunch today
I really knew it! I wish it would work but I know it won't! You are a very beatiful (There is a u in there) girl and I really think you know it.
You will never know how much I'm kicking my ass over the whole year this year (about you and me). I know I never make any sence at all and and hope you get my meaning out of this! Be good and I hope you find some one who loves you like I did!

This has been
A pretty good year
Some ways and not so good in others. I Hope you have fun. Next Year but not too much. Maybe
I will come and see you this summer
IF I get the chance. Take it Easy
These Summer and don't get into to mxn trouble. See ya later.

Beccie
I'll see you
out on that long lonesome ¼ mile. Don't Burn up too many tires.
Have fun, But don't get caught
doing it (so to speak)
